

and as quite as a matter of course, he said:

"Well, we put Lorimer over down at Springfield, but it cost us about $10,000 to do it."

"Then, he went on to say they had to act quickly when the time came; that they had had no chance to consult any one beforehand."

"Then he said, 'Now we are seeing some of our friends so as to get it fixed up.'"

"I asked him why he came to us, meaning the Harvester Company. He said, 'Well, you people are just as much interested in any of us in having the right kind of a man at Washington.'"

"I replied: 'We won't have anything to do with that matter at all.' He said, 'Why not?' I said, 'Simply because we are not in that sort of business.' And we had some aimless discussion, back and forth, and I remember I asked him how much he was getting from his different friends. He said, 'Well, of course, we can only go to a few big people, but if about ten of us put up $10,000 apiece, that would clean it up.'"

"As I left, he asked me to think it over. I made no reply to that. I just went away."

"After more questioning by Attorney Healy, the witness reluctantly gave the name of the man to whom, he alleged, Mr. Hines asked that the money be forwarded, if contributed."

"In answer to queries Mr. Funk said: 'The committee consisted of me, Mr. Healy, and the committee, confidentially, or in executive session, or to the chairman or to the attorney, or in some way without making it a public matter.'"

"I have no reason for wanting to conceal this thing, except that I do not like to drag the name of any other man into this thing."

"Permission being refused, he said, 'Well, I will answer, under protest. He told me to send the money to Ed Tilden.'"

"Who is Ed Tilden?" he was asked. "I think he is president or vice-president of one of the banks at the city, and one of the others of the National Packing Company."

"He is president of the National Packing Company, isn't it?" he asked. "I understand so. It might be proper for me to say here that I have no acquaintance with Mr. Tilden; never met the man in my life to my knowledge, and I have not had no reason other than that I have stated regarding bringing in his name."

"The witness, however, following the printing of the Kohlman editorial bearing upon the alleged fund, the witness said:

"Mr. Hines came to my office a short time after that editorial appeared. He was much disturbed, and undertook to refresh my memory as to what our conversation had been."

"I cannot repeat his language exactly, but it was to the effect that his former conversation with me had been merely a general discussion of the situation down there, and that he had not asked me for any money, and that he did not know anything about any money having been raised."

"The witness was questioned further as to his business and political affiliations. He disclaimed any personal feeling on the testimony given, said that his acquaintance with Mr. Hines was slight, and that he did not know Senator Lorimer. He also said that Mr. McCormick had no interest in the Chicago Tribune, and that the minor questions he was dismissed and the committee adjourned until April 13."

Hines Denies It.
Chicago, April 5.—Edward Hines late today denied absolutely the story told the Helms committee of the Legislature which is investigating the election of United States Senator William Lorimer. He said (Hines) had solicited a fund of $100,000 to reimburse those who had "put up" for the Senator's election.

May Reopen Case.
Washington, April 5.—Little doubt exists here that an effort will be made to reopen the Senator Lorimer case during the present session of Congress. Insurgent Republicans have considered the case.

In view of the fact that a number of Senators who upheld the contention favoring Senator Lorimer are no longer members of the Senate, it cannot be expected that the result of the probable reopening of the case would be different.

Lorimer could not be seen here today, and it was stated at an office that he had started for Chicago.

W. W. Freeman, of Brooklyn, president of the National Light Association, and General George H. Barrie, treasurer of that organization, today invited President Taft to attend annual convention of the organization to be held in New York May 23 to June 3.

About 5,000 delegates will be in attendance. The President said he feared he would not be able to get away from Washington at that time.

Representatives Fitzgerald and Calder, of Brooklyn, who introduced Messrs. Freeman and Barrie, also invited the President to attend the fifth anniversary celebration of the departure of the fourteenth New York Regiment for the Civil War.

The fourteenth was a Brooklyn regiment and is still the leading military organization of that city. The President said he would give an answer about May 1. He would like to attend the celebration, which will be held May 1.

The President has accepted the honorary presidency of the International Peace Forum, a new organization to promote international peace.

Fight for Judiciary Appointment.

Judge Brawley, United States district judge of South Carolina, is expected to retire within a short time and the fight over the vacancy has begun.

Representative Byrnes, of that State, saw the President today and introduced D. S. Henderson, a lawyer of Aiken, as well fitted for the position.

United States Senator, the present United States Senator, said that Judge He is likely to be made United States judge. He is a Republican.

Senator Smoot wishes a place on the bench of Panama for ex-Judge M. A. Breiden, of Utah, and today asked the President to make the appointment.

Mr. Breiden was former Attorney General of Utah. The President said he would consider the matter.

Factional Opposition Unavailing.

Seward S. Watson, brother of ex-Representative Watson, of Indiana, was today nominated for another term as postmaster at Winchester, Ind.

The nomination was opposed by one faction of the Republicans, because the postmaster is a brother of "Jim" Watson, who is a leader of the Fairbanks-Hemenway-Watson faction in the State.

The President ascertained from Postmaster General Hitchcock that Postmaster Watson has a good record as an official of the government. He then announced that he would reappoint Watson on his record, without any reference to his relationship to anybody.

Says President is Gaining Favor.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 5.—The House of Representatives today voted in that body from the Duluth district of Minnesota, blew into the White House today to say that the President is growing with the people and is gaining ground politically every day.

Mr. Bede has been traveling over the country, and has expressed pleasure over the evidences he found of the President's popularity.

"I am in town to advocate popular government in the District of Columbia," said Mr. Bede. "The people should rule. Give me statistics for everything. Why not abolish the judiciary and petty jurisdictions?" he asked popularly. "Just keep a prosecuting attorney and a grand jury. Let the attorneys bring indictments and let the people try each case." He said that this kind of popular government through primaries is a great thing. Give the District of Columbia a chance.

Wind Prohibits Target Practice.

U. S. S. Dolphin, of Virginia Capes, April 5.—Facing a brisk gale and a heavy sea, the Atlantic fleet today again was confronted with conditions that prohibited target practice. The fleet, at Cape Henry today, was blowing thirty miles an hour, and it was impossible in such a wind to tow the targets. In the gale yesterday the battleship Rhode Island lost two of its anchors.

GLOOM IS SPREAD OVER PEACE CAMP

Attitude of Rebel Leader Has Upset Plans of Envoys.

DIAS MUST RESIGN

Until He Does, Madero Will Not Cease His Hostilities.

El Paso, Tex., April 5.—Two Associated Press dispatches, one from a staff correspondent in the field with Madero, and the other from Washington, perturbed the local peace camp today.

The publication of the Washington telegram, in which the fact that Dr. Gomez, the revolutionary agent at Washington, and the then Ambassador De la Barra had started peace negotiations on their own account ten days ago, was called to the attention of Francisco Madero, father of the rebel leader. He received it after the fashion of one whose thunder has been stolen.

"It is true and its publication was authorized by both Gomez and De la Barra. Are you working in harmony with Gomez?"

"Oh, yes; certainly. I think it is not so."

Late Rafael Hernandez, a sort of unofficial go-between trying to foster the peace meeting, was referred to the Washington story. He, too, remarked, "I think it is not so."

The dispatch from Madero's camp west of Chihuahua, stating, among other vital facts, that the rebel leader would consider no negotiations which do not have the resignation of Diaz as a basis, spread more gloom.

Yesterday all plans were made for the so-called peace envoys to visit Madero in camp. To-night Hernandez said that he did not know whether the trip would be made. The dispatch was in advance of word which it had been hoped would be received privately from the Madero camp.

It was accepted as authentic, and since the present peace talk has been based on the belief that formal negotiations could proceed without the immediate retirement of President Diaz, the insurrectionist's declaration to carry on the war has obviously overturned the plan.

Rifles Confiscated.

Douglas, Ariz., April 5.—Two cases of Springfield rifles, with bayonets, consigned from a St. Louis firm to El Paso, and thence to this city, were confiscated today by A. H. Thompson, special agent for the Department of Justice.

Rebels May Take Town.

Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, April 5.—Reports from Arizona indicate that the town may fall into the hands of the rebels at any moment. Six hundred soldiers are reported in the vicinity of Arizona, and they will encounter no opposition in taking possession. Prefecto Pico and his 200 Federal soldiers have deserted the city and started for this place.

Peace Seems Remote.

Chihuahua, Mexico, April 5.—Whatever negotiations were in progress here where the city was known to be camped near the city, were known to be learned on a high level. The subject of the communication was not disclosed, but it was given out that they concerned Madero's recent message to Congress.

Efforts were made, it is said, to ascertain without the help of an intermediary, just what the rebels would lay down arms and bring the republic tranquility throughout the importance than was given to the message was suggested, it is communications stopped suddenly, and with apparent determination that they would not be resumed.

The subject of the work of building defenses for the security of the city was resumed with renewed vigor. Trenches two feet deep were cut transversely across the approaches leading to the center of the town. All other defenses were multiplied and assuring the citizens within the city were perfectly secure.

The number of insurgents who are reported as marching distance was variously estimated at from 3,000 to 4,000.

Not to Attack City.

El Paso, Tex., April 5.—Charles Richards and Jesse Williams, the one a machinist in the Madero camp, and the other just completing one month's service with the insurgents, arrived here today with the news that the insurgents have no present intention of attacking the city of Chihuahua.

Their ambition, said Williams, who has his home with his mother at 125 West 125th Street, New York, is to recapture the city and liberate the prisoners, including the American captives taken in the recent engagement at that place.

Coincident with this information came an official announcement that General Rafael Equiza has been ordered to lead a force of 500 Federal troops have been ordered to Chihuahua. The addition of these troops, it is estimated, will bring the Chihuahua garrison up to 2,000 or more men.

The insurgents realize that with their force of not more than 1,000 men, equipped only with carbines, and with no money, they have no chance against the fully equipped and numerically stronger force in the city. It is not unlikely, however, that the present pourparlers speedily develop into a truce, that Madero or some other rebel chief will endeavor to intercept Equiza on the march.

Report May Be True.

With reference to the rumor of the movement of this move of the Casas Grandes force, it is considered by those familiar with the situation that the report may be merely to mislead the enemy. In any event, it is practically certain that Equiza will not attempt to take his prisoners with him.

Madero is at Rancho Buena Vista, according to reports, and he is expected to receive his father and brother. Affairs to discuss peace plans. There has been no word from the city.

"You are as well as your stomach."
